Inter-School Sport

The school has uniforms that are hired to students when they participate in inter-school sport.

Please Note:

Long sleeve tops: Only plain navy or white are to be worn under polo shirts.

Shoes: Suitable footwear must be worn at all times. Black is the preferred colour. Shoes worn in the gymnasium must have non marking soles. Students are required to wear enclosed shoes in some subject areas due to safety reasons.

Coats or Jackets without logos can be worn over school windcheaters to and from school and at recess and lunch time, but ARE NOT PERMITTED to be worn in heated classrooms.

Jewellery: A teacher may request a student to remove any item of jewellery if the item is deemed to be unsafe, creates a hazard or is inappropriate.

The Following Items are Unacceptable

Denim or "denim look-alike" jeans, shorts or skirts; Any clothing with bold name brand logos, other than school logos. Open sling back sandals, thongs, Ugg boots, slippers, gumboots, knee-high boots. Any item of clothing or headwear that displays inappropriate wording, logos or images.

The ONLY provider of the Oakbank Area School uniform is the Mount Barker Uniform Shop located at Shop 2, 6 Dutton Road, Mount Barker. Telephone: 8398 3983.

Parents of a student not wearing school uniform are asked to provide a note explaining why they are out of uniform. Parents of a student without a note may be contacted and asked to collect their child or bring the correct uniform for their child to change into. Alternatively, the student may be loaned a washed, second-hand uniform that the school may have.
